

CITY TOUR

By bus

Duration: cca 3h

Program:

13:30h meeting in front of the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering in Niš. The sightseeing will start with the following itinerary: the group will go to the Čegar hill, and on the way there they will hear about Jagodin-mala and its secrets which none of the cities in Balkans have... City panorama and the story about the first settlements, a quick glance to the textile factory and the story about the archaeological treasure it lays on. The story about Stefan Nemanja, a great Serbian Middle Ages king and about his foundation – a story about St. Pantaleimonas church.

After a short while the group will arrive to Čegar, where they will have a short brake to look around and hear about the great Čegar battle, after the group will take Tsarigrad road to the Scull Tower and hear the outcome of the battle. Hear about the great heroes.

Then the group will take Via Militaris and go to Mediana wher they will hear about a great man born on this very site, the one after whom a city has its name... They will hear the story of the Edict of Milan, tetarchy, archaeology... panoramic view.

Later on, the group will go to the Fortress of Niš by bus and there they will have a short walk, where they will see: the arsenal, the powder rooms, the turkish bath, Stambol, Belgrade and Death gates, the turkish prison, the lapidarium, the mosque. Here, they will have a possibility to take a short break and refresh. The city tour will continue by bus with the stories of: the two monuments one 100 years older then the other, the story of the First World War, of a king, a tzar, a crown prince, the jazz. Later the group will arrive to the Archaeological Museum of Niš and see the exhibition.

After this sightseeing, the group will continue with the Faculty of Mathematics and Sciences' students, the future tourism specialists and continue on foot through city center. End of program.