

Embassy of the United States of America

Belgrade, October 20, 2008

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is my pleasure to inform you that the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the U.S. Department of State is again offering a few grants under the Fulbright Visiting Scholar Program for the 2009-2010 academic year to citizens of the Republic of Serbia.

We would be grateful if you would give these announcements broad distribution.

Thank you very much for your cooperation and please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Susan Delja". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "S" and a long, sweeping tail.

U.S. EMBASSY BELGRADE
ANNOUNCES
THE 2009-2010 ACADEMIC YEAR ANNUAL COMPETITION
FOR THE FULBRIGHT VISITING SCHOLAR PROGRAM
FOR CITIZENS OF REPUBLIC OF SERBIA

The Fulbright Visiting Scholar Program is a non-degree research program for junior and senior researchers, university lecturers and experts from academic institutions in Serbia. This program sends scholars to the United States for advanced research and university lecturing. All applicants must currently be affiliated with one of the universities in Serbia. Special preference will be given to candidates who have the capacity and commitment to take full advantage of a program of research or lecturing at a U.S. university, and who are willing to share their experience and knowledge after returning to Serbia.

Fields of Specialization: Applications will be considered in the following areas of specialization:

Agriculture	Dance	Mathematics
American History	Economics	Medical Sciences
American Literature	Education	Music
American Studies	Engineering	Philosophy
Anthropology	Environmental Sciences	Physics/Astronomy
Archaeology	Film Studies	Political Science
Architecture	Geography	Psychology
Art	Geology	Public Administration
Art History	History (non-U.S.)	Public/Global Health
Biological Sciences	Information Sciences	Religious Studies
Business Administration	Journalism	Social Work
Chemistry	Language/Literature (non-U.S.)	Sociology
Communications	Law	TEFL/Applied Linguistics
Computer Science	Library Science	Theater
Creative Writing	Linguistics	Urban Planning

Eligibility requirements:

- Applicants must be citizens of Republic of Serbia
- Applicants must hold a Ph.D. in the field of research or lecturing
- Applicants must be proficient in oral and written English
- Applicants must be eligible for J-1 visa, which requires the grantee to return to Republic of Serbia for a minimum of two years at the end of the grant period
- Applicants must receive a satisfactory medical clearance
- Persons desiring permanent residence in the United States are not eligible

Dependents: Since the funds are limited, the Fulbright program at this time does not permit accompanying dependents.

How to apply:

Guidelines for Applicants and 2009-2010 Fulbright Visiting Scholar Application Form in both Acrobat Reader and Word format can be downloaded from the Embassy web site:

<http://belgrade.usembassy.gov>.

Submit applications to:

Office of Public Affairs, Embassy of the United States, Kneza Milosa 50, 11000 Belgrade

Completed applications must be submitted (in person or by mail) in triplicate in English to the above address by November 30, 2008. Only short-listed candidates will be interviewed in early December, and the final selection and placement will be made in Washington, in early 2009.

Any application arriving in the United States or elsewhere, separate from the official U.S. Embassy submission, will not be considered.
